

A photograph of two women in a professional setting. An older woman with short grey hair and glasses, wearing a tan blazer over a light blue shirt, is smiling and looking towards a younger woman. The younger woman has long dark hair and is wearing a bright yellow top, also smiling and looking back at the older woman. They appear to be in a collaborative conversation.

Future-proofing your GP practice

At Wesleyan Financial Services we're committed to helping GPs achieve their financial goals. From supporting with your GP practice business needs to guidance regarding your personal finances, we can help.

Created specifically for GP Partners and beneficial for Practice Managers, we have developed a free-to-download guide which could help you to better understand how to future-proof your partnership and get the most out of your business.

The guide covers topics such as:

- ▶ Protecting your business – As a business owner are you confident that your GP practice is comprehensively covered if an incident happened?
- ▶ Business continuity – What would happen if your key staff were absent for a week or even a day?
- ▶ Succession planning – When the time comes, how are you going to exit your business?
- ▶ Prioritising your workforce's wellbeing – As an employer, you're responsible for your workforce's wellbeing - do your employees need help with financial advice?
- ▶ Growing your business - Owning a GP practice brings lots of opportunity for commercial growth. Specialist financial advice can make all the difference.
